NOTICE TO THE LANDLORD

Whereas in terms of their decision dated 2nd March 2026 the Tribunal determined that the Landlord has failed to comply with the duty imposed by Section 14 (1)(b) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 and in particular the Landlord has failed to ensure that the Property is reasonably fit for human habitation; the structure and exterior of the Property (including drains, gutters and external pipes) are in a reasonable state of repair and proper working order; the installations in the house for the supply of water, gas and electricity and for sanitation, space heating and heating water are in a reasonable state of repair and proper working order; the fixtures and fittings provided by the Landlord are in a reasonable state of repair and proper working order and the Property meets the tolerable standard in relation to the fire and smoke alarms.

The Tribunal now requires the Landlord to carry out such work as is necessary for the purposes of ensuring that the Property meets the repairing standard and that any damage caused by the carrying out of any work in terms of this Order is made good.

In particular, the Tribunal requires the Landlord to: -

- 1. Remove debris from the gutters of the Property.
- 2. Repair or, if necessary, replace, the gutters at the Property.
- 3. Instruct a suitably qualified electrician, who should be a member of Select, NECEIC or other approved body, to undertake inspection and testing of the electrical installation at the Property and to provide an Electrical Inspection Condition Report (EICR), completing any works found to be necessary

4. Replace the extractor fans within the bathrooms and kitchen of the Property.
5. Install thermal insulation within the roof / loft space of the Property.

The Tribunal orders that these works must be carried out and completed by 16th January 2027.

A landlord, tenant or third party applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of any order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by the Upper Tribunal, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by upholding the decision, the decision and any order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.

Please note that in terms of section 28(1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006, a landlord who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a RSEO commits an offence liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale. In terms of s28(5) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 a landlord (and that includes a landlord's successor in title) also commits an offence if he or she enters into a tenancy or occupancy agreement in relation to a house at any time during which a RSEO has effect in relation to the house.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF these presents typewritten on this and the two preceding pages are subscribed at Stirling on 6th October 2026 by Virgil Crawford, Chairperson of the Tribunal, in the presence Ann-Marie Hatton,
