Mr Daniel Shepherd and Ms Lindsay Mathers, c/o Barbara Ellis Leasing, 13 Deeside Park, Aberdeen, AB15 7PQ ("the Landlord")

The Tribunal comprised:-

Ms Ruth O'Hare - Legal Member
Mr Angus Anderson - Ordinary Member

Whereas in terms of their decision dated 28 April 2022, the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that the landlord has failed to comply with the duty imposed by Section 14(1)(b) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 ("the Act") and in particular that the landlord has failed to ensure that:-

- (a) The house is wind and watertight and in all other respects reasonably fit for human habitation; and
- (b) Any fixtures, fittings and appliances provided by the landlord under the tenancy are in a reasonable state of repair and in proper working order, the Tribunal now requires the landlord to carry out such work as is necessary for the purposes of ensuring that the house concerned meets the Repairing Standard and that any damage caused by the carrying out of any work in terms of this Order is made good.

In particular the Tribunal requires the landlord to:-

- (a) Investigate the areas of damp and water ingress in the house and carry out any remedial works required to prevent further water ingress;
- (b) Investigate the leak from the shower in the ensuite shower room in the master bedroom and carry out any repairs required to prevent water leakage;
- (c) Carry out repairs to the toilet to ensure it is in proper working order; and
- (d) Carry any redecoration required following completion of the above works.

The Tribunal orders that the works specified in this Order must be carried out and completed within a period of twelve weeks from the date of service of this Notice.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of any order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or determined by the Upper Tribunal, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by upholding the decision, the decision and any order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or determined.

Please note that in terms of section 28(1) of the Act, a landlord who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a RSEO commits an offence liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale. A landlord (and that includes any landlord's successor in title) also commits an offence if he or she enters into a tenancy or occupancy arrangement in relation to a house at any time during which a RSEO has effect in relation to the house. This is in terms of Section 28(5) of the Act.
