

DECISION AND STATEMENT OF REASONS OF JOAN DEVINE, LEGAL MEMBER OF THE FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL WITH DELEGATED POWERS OF THE CHAMBER PRESIDENT

Under Rule 8 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ("the Rules")

in connection with

Flat 6, 10 Dorset Square, Glasgow G3 7LL ("Property")

Case Reference: FTS/HPC/RP/26/1290

Lamisa Kindred, Flat 6, 10 Dorset Square, Glasgow G3 7LL ("Tenant")

1. The Tenant made an application under section 22 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 in terms of Rule 48 of the Rules. The Tenant lodged form A dated 20 March 2026.
2. By email dated 11 May 2026 the Tribunal noted that the name and address of the landlord had not been provided, the application referred only to the letting agent. The Tribunal also noted that the Tenant had indicated that they intended to vacate the Property in March / April 2026. The tribunal sought clarification as to whether the Tenant remained the tenant of the Property. No reply was received. The Tribunal followed up the request for further information by emails dated 2 June, 19 June and 14 July 2026. No reply was received.

DECISION

3. The Legal Member considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-
Rejection of application

8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if—

- (a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;
- (b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;
- (c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;
- (d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or
- (e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision.

4. After consideration of the application and documents lodged in support of same the Legal Member considers that the application should be rejected on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules.

Reasons for Decision

- 5. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env LR9. He indicated at page 16 of the judgment; "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic". It is that definition which the Legal Member has considered as the test in this application, and on consideration of this test, the Legal Member considers that this application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success.
- 6. The Tenant made an application under section 22 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006. The Tenant did not provide the name and address of the Landlord as required by Rule 48. The Tenant did not clarify whether they remain as a tenant of the Property. In these circumstances, the Legal Member determines that the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success.

The application is rejected on that basis.

What you should do now

If you accept the Legal Member's decision, there is no need to reply.

If you disagree with this decision –

An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Chamber President, or any Legal Member acting under delegated powers, may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them. Information about the appeal procedure can be forwarded to you on request.
