Decision in absence of the Respondent

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

Background:

On 8 February 2018 the Tribunal accepted for determination an application made on 29 January 2018 by the Applicants through their solicitors TC Young for Possession on Termination of a Short Assured Tenancy in terms of S 33 of The Housing (Scotland) Act 1988. The Applicants lodged with the application the Short Assured Tenancy Agreement dated 27 June 2014 as well as a copy of the AT5, the Notice to Quit dated 28 November 2017 and S 33 Notice dated 28 November 2017 and the Sheriff Officers’ letters confirming service of these on the Respondent on 28 November 2017. The bundle also contained the S 11 Notice to the Local Authority under the Homelessness etc (Scotland) Act 2003.

The application was intimated to the Respondent and a Case Management Discussion fixed for 27 March 2018, which was attended by Mr Matheson from TC Young for the Applicants.

The Respondent, Mr Docking, had been advised of the date and time and location of the Case Management Discussion by the Tribunal by letter served on him by Sheriff Officers on 23 February 2018. The intimation to the parties included the information that the Tribunal may do anything at a Case Management Discussion which it may do at a hearing, including making a decision on the application.

The Respondent had been given the 14 days notice required in Rule 24 of the Rules of Procedure. No representations were received from the Respondent and he did not attend the Case Management Discussion.

In terms of Rule 29 the hearing thus took place in his absence.

The Hearing:

Mr Matheson for the Applicants stated that the tenancy for the property is a Short Assured Tenancy . He referred the Tribunal to the documentation lodged with the application showing that a Notice to Quit and a Notice in terms of S 33 (1) d of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 had been service on the Respondent by Sheriff Officers on 28 November 2017 giving the required 2 months notice in terms of S33 of the Act. He moved for an order for repossession of the property.

The Tribunal concluded that as there facts in this case were not disputed by any representations from the Respondent, it was not necessary to adjourn the case to a further hearing.

The solicitor for the Applicants referred the Tribunal to S 33 (1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 and moved for an order.

If the tests of S 33 (1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 are met there is no discretion for the Tribunal and the order must be granted. All issues were discussed at the hearing and the facts of the case were clear.

Findings in Fact:

- 1. The Applicants and the Respondents entered into a Short Assured Tenancy on 27 June 2014 with an end date at 28 December 2014 (Clause 3.1) with a continuation on a monthly basis (Clause 3.2).
- 2. Notice to Quit was served on the Respondents by Sheriff Officers on 28 November 2017 advising of the termination of the tenancy on the ish on 28 January 2018.
- 3. Notice in terms of S 33 (1) d of The Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 was served on the Respondents by Sheriff Officers on 28 November 2017 advising of the intention to repossess the premises on 28 January 2018.

4. Notice to the Local Authority was given in terms of S 11 of the Homelessness Etc (Scotland) Act 2003.
5. The Respondents had remained in the property at the date of the hearing.

Reasons for the Decision:

The Tribunal make the decision on the basis of the written evidence lodged by the Applicants. There was no dispute about the facts of the case.

In terms of S 33 (1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 an order for possession of the house under a Short Assured Tenancy shall be made if the Tribunal is satisfied that:

1. The short assured tenancy has reached its ish
2. That tacit relocation is not operating
3. That no further contractual tenancy (whether a short assured tenancy or not) is for the time being in existence; and
4. That the landlord has given to the tenant notice that he requires possession of the house.

In this case there was not dispute that the tenancy is a short assured tenancy which had reached its ish on 28 December 2014 and continued thereafter month to month. The landlord had served a notice to quit with the required 40 days notice period on 28 November 2017 for the ish on 28 January 2018 and thus tacit relocation did not operate. The contractual tenancy had come to an end. The landlord had served on the Respondents a notice in terms of S 33 (1) d of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 with the required 2 months notice period on 28 November 2017 to 28 January 2018.

The Tribunal has no discretion in the matter. The conditions for an order for possession in terms of S 33 (1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 have been evidenced by the Applicants in the documentation lodged and are not disputed. Thus the Tribunal grants the order for possession as per the application.

Decision:

The Tribunal makes an order for possession of the Property under S 33 (1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
