Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/EV/22/0521

Re: Property at 1B Carbrook Street, Paisley, PA1 2NW (“the Property”)

Parties:

Mr David Lang, 34 Riccarton Avenue, Paisley, PA2 6BG (“the Applicant”)

Mr Connor McSorley, 1B Carbrook Street, Paisley, PA1 2NW (“the Respondent”)

Tribunal Members:

Ruth O’Hare (Legal Member) and Frances Wood (Ordinary Member)

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined to make an eviction order against the Respondent

Background

- 1 By application to the Tribunal dated 23 February 2022 the Applicant sought an eviction order against the Respondent in respect of the Property under section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 (“the 2016 Act”). In support of the application the Applicant provided the following documentation:-
  - (i) Private Residential Tenancy Agreement between the parties dated 18 January 2020;
  - (ii) Notice to Leave dated 6 August 2021 stating that proceedings for possession will commence no earlier than 7 February 2022 and citing ground 12, together with proof of service by hand delivery;
  - (iii) Notice under section 11 of the Homelessness (Scotland) Act 2003 to Renfrewshire Council;

- (iv) Rent Statement showing arrears of £1697.44 as at 23 February 2022;
  - (v) Copy bank statements; and
  - (vi) Copy emails from the Applicant to the Respondent regarding rent arrears.
- 2 By Notice of Acceptance of Application the Legal Member with delegated powers of the Chamber President intimated that there were no grounds on which to reject the application. A Case Management Discussion was therefore assigned for the 5 July 2022 to take place by teleconference. A copy of the application paperwork together with notification of the date and time of the Case Management Discussion and instructions on how to join the teleconference was intimated to the Respondent by Sheriff Officers.

Case Management Discussion

- 3 The Case Management Discussion took place by teleconference on 5 July 2022. The Applicant was in attendance. The Respondent was not present. The Tribunal noted that the application paperwork had been served upon the Respondent by Sheriff Officers, with details of the date and time of the Case Management Discussion and instructions for joining the case conference. Accordingly the Tribunal was satisfied that the notification requirements had been complied with and determined to proceed with the Case Management Discussion in his absence.
- 4 The Applicant advised that the Respondent had failed to communicate and had not paid any rent since 12 November 2021, when he made a payment of £100. The Applicant was aware that he had been in employment, which had commenced in August 2021. He was 21 years old and resided with another tenant in the property. The Applicant clarified that the order was sought solely against the Respondent. There were separate tenancy agreements in place for the Respondent and his fellow tenant, the latter of whom was complying with his rental obligations.
- 5 In response to questions from the Tribunal the Applicant confirmed that the Respondent had previously been in receipt of benefits, however he had gained employment in August 2021 and benefits ceased at that point. He had made a payment in November 2021 but nothing since. The Applicant confirmed that he had tried to get in contact with the Respondent by phone and by email but had not had any response. He had also visited the property and had spoken to the other tenant. The last visit had been in February when the Applicant had advised that he would be submitting an application to the Tribunal. The Applicant confirmed that the arrears now stood at £2997.44. He had given the Respondent an opportunity to carry out work for him in lieu of rent but the Respondent had failed to engage. The Applicant expressed his disappointment with the Respondent's conduct.

Relevant Legislation

- 6 The legislation the Tribunal must apply in its determination of the application are the following provisions of the Private Housing Tenancies (Scotland) Act 2016, as amended by the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020, the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 (Eviction from Dwelling-houses) (Notice Periods) Modification Regulations 2020 and the Coronavirus (Extension and Expiry) (Scotland) Act 2021:-

(b) the tenant occupies the property (or any part of it) as the tenant’s only or principal home, and

(c) the tenancy is not one which schedule 1 states cannot be a private residential tenancy.

51 First-tier Tribunal’s power to issue an eviction order

(2) The provisions of schedule 3 stating the circumstances in which the Tribunal may find that an eviction ground applies are exhaustive of the circumstances in which the Tribunal is entitled to find that the ground in question applies.

(3) The Tribunal must state in an eviction order the eviction ground, or grounds, on the basis of which it is issuing the order.

(4) An eviction order brings a tenancy which is a private residential tenancy to an end on the day specified by the Tribunal in the order.

Schedule 3, Part 12

(1) It is an eviction ground that the tenant has been in rent arrears for three or more consecutive months. ...

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may find that the ground named by subparagraph (1) applies if— (a) for three or more consecutive months the tenant has been in arrears of rent, and (b) the Tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable on account of that fact to issue an eviction order. (4) In deciding under sub-paragraph (3) whether it is reasonable to issue an eviction order, the Tribunal is to consider whether the tenant's being in arrears of rent over the period in question is wholly or partly a consequence of a delay or failure in the payment of a relevant benefit.

- 7 The Rent Arrears Pre-Action Requirements (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 are also relevant to this application.

Findings in Fact and Law

- 8 The parties entered into a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement dated 18 January 2020.
- 9 The tenancy between the parties was a private residential tenancy as defined by section 1 of the 2016 Act.
- 10 On 6th August 2021 the Applicant delivered a Notice to Leave to the Respondent by hand delivery at the property. The Notice to Leave cited ground 12 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act and confirmed that proceedings would not be raised any earlier than 7th February 2022.

- 11 The Notice to Leave is in the format prescribed by the Private Residential Tenancies (Prescribed Notices and Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 2017.
- 12 In terms of Clause 8 of the said Tenancy Agreement the Respondent undertook to make payment of rent at the rate of £260 per calendar month.
- 13 As at the date of service of the Notice to Leave arrears in the sum of £647.93 were outstanding.
- 14 As at the date of the Case Management Discussion arrears in the sum of £2997.44 were outstanding.
- 15 Despite repeated requests the Respondent has refused or delayed to make payment of the rent due.
- 16 The Applicant has complied with the pre-action requirements to a reasonable extent by advising the Respondent of his rental obligations and arrears outstanding and making numerous attempts at contact.
- 17 It is reasonable to make the order sought by the Applicant.
- 18 The provisions of ground 12 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act have been met.

Reasons for Decision

- 19 The Tribunal was satisfied at the Case Management Discussion that it had sufficient information upon which to make a decision and that to do so would not be prejudicial to the interests of the parties. The Respondent had been given the opportunity to take part in the proceedings through service of the application paperwork but had chosen not to do so. On that basis the Tribunal did not consider there to be any requirement to fix a hearing in the matter as there were no issues to be resolved.
- 20 The application before the Tribunal was accompanied by a Notice to Leave which confirmed the Applicant's intention to rely upon ground 12 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act. The Tribunal was satisfied that the required notice had been given to the Respondent and therefore that application could be entertained.
- 21 The Tribunal accepted that there were rent arrears outstanding in the sum of £2997.44 and the rent statement reflected that no rent had been paid since November 2021. The Respondent's payments to the rent account had been sporadic, resulting in a significant balance of arrears. On that basis the Tribunal was satisfied that ground 12 had been met, in that rent had gone unpaid for three or more months and there was at least one months rent arrears outstanding as at the date of the Case Management Discussion.

- 22 The Tribunal then considered the question of reasonableness. The Tribunal accepted the submissions from the Applicant at the Case Management Discussion regarding the Respondent's personal circumstances, namely that he was aged 21, had no dependents and was currently in employment. Taking into account the level of rent arrears, the lack of payments from the Respondent and the efforts by the Applicant to engage with the Respondent, the Tribunal ultimately considered it would be reasonable to make an order for eviction. The Respondent had failed to engage with the proceedings and there was therefore nothing before the Tribunal to contradict the position by the Applicant which the Tribunal found to be credible.
- 23 The Tribunal therefore determined to make an order for eviction against the Respondent. The decision of the Tribunal was unanimous.
- 24 As an observation the Tribunal would wish to comment that whilst it found the extent of the Applicant's compliance with the pre-action requirements to be sufficient, taking into account the particular facts and circumstances of this case, there were elements that were lacking, in particular the requirement to direct a tenant to advice agencies for support. The Tribunal would recommend that the Applicant familiarise himself with the pre-action requirements in order to ensure that he can fully comply with them in future, should similar action be required.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
