Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that the application should be dismissed on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules and that it would not be appropriate to accept the application in terms of Rule 8(1)(c).

Background

1. The application was received by the Tribunal under Rule 109 on 25 September 2022.
2. The application was considered by the Tribunal and further information was requested by letters of 24 October, 29 November 2022 and 23 December 2022 as follows:

“Before a decision can be made, we need you to provide us with the following: We note that you have failed to respond to our letters of 24 October 2022 and 29 November 2022 asking you to provide further information Can you please advise the tribunal whether you are now in a position to provide the additional information which was initially requested in terms of our letter of 24 October 2022 Upon receipt of the above information, a final decision can then be taken on whether your application is valid and whether it should be accepted and referred to the tribunal for full determination. You should be aware that the Tribunal has the power to reject applications on grounds set out in rule 8 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 Please respond to this letter within the next two weeks feeling which it is very likely that the decision will be taken to reject this application on the basis of your failure to provide the necessary information requested by the tribunal Please reply to this office with the necessary information by 6 January 2023. If we do not hear from you within this time, the President may decide to reject the application.”

No response was received to any of the requests for information.

Reasons for Decision

3. The Tribunal considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.-(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if-

(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;-
(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

4. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env. L.R. 9. At page 16, he states: - "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic".

5. Rule 109 of the Tribunal Procedure Rules provides:

Application for an eviction order

109. Where a landlord makes an application under section 51(1) (for an eviction order) of the 2016 Act, the application must—

(a)state—

- (i) the name, address and registration number (if any) of the landlord;
 - (ii) the name, address and profession of any representative of the landlord;
 - (iii) the name and address of the tenant (if known); and
 - (iv) the ground or grounds for eviction;
- (b) be accompanied by—
- (i) evidence showing that the eviction ground or grounds has been met;
 - (ii) a copy of the notice to leave given to the tenant as required under section 52(3) of the 2016 Act; and
 - (iii) a copy of the notice given to the local authority as required under section 56(1) of the 2016 Act; and
 - (iv) a copy of Form BB (notice to the occupier) under schedule 6 of the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970 (if applicable), and
- (c) be signed and dated by the landlord or a representative of the landlord.

The Applicant has failed to provide necessary information. The Tribunal could not grant the order sought.

6. Applying the test identified by Lord Justice Bingham in the case of R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court (cited above) the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. Furthermore, the Tribunal consider that there is good reason why the application should not be accepted. The application is accordingly rejected.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
