Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

Background

This is an application for a payment order dated 25th July 2018 and brought in terms of Rule 70 (Application for civil proceedings in relation to an assured tenancy under the 1988 Act) of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

The Applicant sought in his application payment of arrears in rental payments of £1,750.00 in relation to the Property from the Respondent, and provided with his application copies of the short assured tenancy agreement, rent arrears statement, and various correspondence.

The short assured tenancy agreement had been correctly and validly prepared in terms of the provisions of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988, and the procedures set out in that Act had been correctly followed and applied.

The Respondent had been validly served by sheriff officers with the notification, application, papers and guidance notes from the Tribunal on 27th November 2018, and I was provided with the execution of service.

Case Management Discussion

A Case Management Discussion was held on 20th December 2018 at Glasgow Tribunals Centre, 20 York Street, Glasgow. The Applicant appeared, but was not represented. The Respondent did not appear, nor was she represented. The Respondent has not responded to this application at any stage either in writing or by any other form of communication.

The Applicant had in response to a direction from the Tribunal of 24th October 2018 produced a copy of the rent book detailing the payments and receipts of rental in respect of the property from the Respondent.

He also produced an up-dated rent arrears statement to today's date disclosing rent arrears now amounting to £3,304.50.

I was invited by the Applicant with reference to the application and papers to grant an order for payment in the sum of £3,304.50. He accepted that no intimation of the increased figure he sought had been given to the Respondent, and indicated that if the Tribunal was not prepared to grant an order for that higher amount, then he would invite it to grant an order today for the sum of £1,750.00 sought in the original application.

Statement of Reasons

Section 16 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 provides as follows:

"16. Regulated and assured tenancies etc.

(1) The functions and jurisdiction of the sheriff in relation to actions arising from the following tenancies and occupancy agreements are transferred to the First-tier Tribunal -

(a) a regulated tenancy (within the meaning of section 8 of the Rent (Scotland) Act 1984 (c.58)),

(b) a Part VII contract (within the meaning of section 63 of that Act),

(c) an assured tenancy (within the meaning of section 12 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 (c.43)).

(2) But that does not include any function or jurisdiction relating to the prosecution of, or the imposition of a penalty for, a criminal offence.

(3) Part 1 of schedule 1 makes minor and consequential amendments."

Accordingly, the Tribunal now has jurisdiction in relation to claims by a landlord (such as the Applicant) for payment of unpaid rental against a tenant (such as the Respondent) under a short assured tenancy such as this.

The Tribunal considered the terms of the short assured tenancy agreement and the copy rent arrears statement provided, and was satisfied that this disclosed an outstanding balance of rent arrears as at the date of the Application in the sum sought of £1,750.00.

The Tribunal was satisfied that the further rent arrears statement updated to today's date disclosed current arrears of rental of £3,304.50. However, that figure is not one which was intimated to the Respondent in the application with which she was served, and is significantly higher than the figure of £1,750.00 contained in the application.

In the absence of the Respondent at the Case Management Discussion today and where she has not received intimation of the higher figure sought, the Respondent has not been given the opportunity if she so chose to appear or make representations to the Tribunal as to whether she accepts that the increased figure is owed by her to the Applicant.

Though the Tribunal has sympathy for the Applicant's position in seeking an order for the increased sum now due, it felt that it would not be just to make an order for that increased amount where the Respondent has received no notice of it, having regard to the overriding objective of the Tribunal to deal with proceedings justly in terms of Rule 2 of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

Accordingly, the Tribunal shall make an order for payment of the sum sought in the application, being the sum of £1,750.00.

Decision

In these circumstances, the Tribunal will make an order for payment by the Respondent to the Applicant of the sum of £1,750.00.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
