

Housing and Property Chamber
First-tier Tribunal for Scotland

Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 9 and 10 of the Tenancy Deposit Schemes (Scotland) Regulations 2011

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/PR/19/2840

Re: Property at Flat 2/2 295 Byers Road, Glasgow, G12 8TL ("the Property")

Parties:

Miss Ailsa Rosalind Jones, Miss Anna Robb, 2 Endfield Avenue, Glasgow, G12 0JX; 35 Midmills Road, Inverness, IV2 3NZ ("the Applicants")

Mr Paul Gerrard McLaughlin, whose current whereabouts are unknown ("the Respondent")

Tribunal Members:

Neil Kinnear (Legal Member)

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that

Background

This is an application dated 10th September 2019 brought in terms of Rule 103 (Application for order for payment where landlord has not paid the deposit into an approved scheme) of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

The application is made under Regulation 9 of the Tenancy Deposit Schemes (Scotland) Regulations 2011 ("the 2011 Regulations").

The Applicants seek payment of compensation in respect of an alleged failure by the Respondent to pay the deposit they assert they provided of £1,300.00 in relation to the tenancy agreement into an approved scheme within 30 days of receipt of that sum.

The Applicants provided with their application copies of the e-mail and mobile phone text correspondence between the parties which confirmed their payment of the deposit, bank statements showing the payment of the deposit, and correspondence from the three tenancy deposit schemes confirming that none of them held their deposit.

The Respondent could not be validly served by sheriff officers with the notification, application, papers and guidance notes from the Tribunal, as the Applicants have never been provided with his address, and his current whereabouts are unknown.

Service was validly effected by advertisement in terms of Rule 6A of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended, and the Tribunal was provided with the Certificate of Service by advertisement.

The Case Management Discussion

A Case Management Discussion was held on 14th January 2020 at Glasgow Tribunals Centre, 20 York Street, Glasgow. The First Applicant, Miss Ailsa Jones, appeared, and was not represented. The Second Applicant did not appear, but had authorised the First Applicant to represent her. The Respondent has not responded to this application at any stage either in writing or by any other form of communication.

The First Applicant explained that after requesting repayment of their full deposit at the end of the tenancy on 22nd June 2019, together with a copy of the lease which they had never been provided with, and details regarding the lodging of their deposit with an approved scheme, the Respondent had broken off his previous e-mail and mobile phone text message contact with them.

The Applicants subsequently made enquiries with the three tenancy deposit schemes, who confirmed that none of them had any record of their deposit being lodged.

The Applicants had also checked the Register of Landlords, and found that the Respondent was not registered. The Tribunal had also checked the Register and confirmed that the Respondent is not registered thereon.

The Applicants sought payment of compensation in respect of the Respondent's failure to lodge their deposit in an approved scheme.

Reasons for Decision

This application was brought timeously in terms of regulation 9(2) of the 2011 Regulations.

Regulation 3 of the 2011 Regulations (which came into force on 7th March 2011) provides as follows:

“(1) A landlord who has received a tenancy deposit in connection with a relevant tenancy must, within 30 working days of the beginning of the tenancy—

- (a) pay the deposit to the scheme administrator of an approved scheme; and
- (b) provide the tenant with the information required under regulation 42.”

The Respondent as landlord was required to pay the deposit into an approved scheme. He failed to do so.

Regulation 10 of the 2011 Regulations provides as follows:

“If satisfied that the landlord did not comply with any duty in regulation 3 the First-tier Tribunal -

- (a) must order the landlord to pay the tenant an amount not exceeding three times the amount of the tenancy deposit; and
- (b) may, as the First-tier Tribunal considers appropriate in the circumstances of the application, order the landlord to—
 - (i) pay the tenancy deposit to an approved scheme; or
 - (ii) provide the tenant with the information required under regulation 42.”

The Tribunal is satisfied that the Respondent did not comply with his duty under regulation 3, and accordingly it must order the Respondent to pay the Applicants an amount not exceeding three times the amount of the tenancy deposit.

In the case of Jenson v Fappiano 2015 G.W.D 4-89, Sheriff Welsh opined in relation to regulation 10 of the 2011 Regulations that there had to be a judicial assay of the nature of the non-compliance in the circumstances of the case and a value attached thereto which sounded in sanction, and that there should be a fair, proportionate and just sanction in the circumstances of the case. With that assessment the Tribunal respectfully agrees.

In the case of Tenzin v Russell 2015 Hous. L. R. 11, an Extra Division of the Inner House of the Court of Session confirmed that the amount of any award in respect of regulation 10(a) of the 2011 Regulations is the subject of judicial discretion after careful consideration of the circumstances of the case.

In determining what a fair, proportionate and just sanction in the circumstances of this application should be, the Tribunal took account of the fact that the Respondent appears to have failed to comply with important legal obligations incumbent on a landlord.

The Respondent is an unregistered landlord, which is a criminal offence if entering into a lease such as this with a tenant. He has failed to lodge the deposit with an approved scheme, in terms of the regulations incumbent upon him. The Applicants have been unable to make contact with him, and he does not respond to their communications concerning this matter.

The 2011 Regulations have been enacted to provide protection to tenants in respect of their deposit and ensure that they can obtain repayment of their deposit at the conclusion of the lease. The period during which the deposit was not lodged in an approved scheme and during which the Applicant did not have the security provided by such lodging was lengthy (approximately 16 months to today's date).

The Tribunal considered the Respondent's breach to be flagrant, and in these circumstances, the Tribunal considers that the sum of £3,900.00 (three times the amount of the tenancy deposit) is an appropriate sanction to impose.

Decision

For the foregoing reasons, the Tribunal orders the Respondent in respect of his breach of Regulation 3 of the 2011 Regulations to make payment to the Applicants of the sum of £3,900.00 in terms of Regulation 10(a) of the 2011 Regulations.

The Tribunal will also report the Respondent's failure to register himself as a landlord on the Register of Landlords to the appropriate authorities.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

Legal Member/Chair

14/01/20

Date